Re: Michael KAMBUROWSKI - A76 595 582

Dear Judge Abrams:

I represent Mr. Kamburowski who is scheduled for a Master Calendar hearing on March 12, 2004. I can not attend this hearing due to the fact that I already have three (3) Master Calendar hearings scheduled for that morning and one detained Individual hearing from Philadelphia, Pa at 8:30 am. The names of the cases are: Mari Yahdjian, A72-020-252; Fermin Martinez, A39-088-775; Andrzej Trzeciak, A73-175-139; and the detained case which is telephonic from Philadelphia at 8:30 am is Viacheslav Strelchikov, A70-325-281. Normally I would have Mrs. Delli-Pizzi, Esq.; assist me with this calendar, but she is 9 months pregnant and actually is due to deliver on March 16, 2004. While March 12th is her last day, I am not even sure she will be in on that day, nor would I take the chance of sending her to Jamaica so close to her delivery date. As such, I would appreciate it if you would adjourn this matter to one of the following dates: March 26 (am only); 29 (am only); 31; April 6; 7; 9; and 12, 2004. I have also been discussing with Mr. Paoli, Esq., if the Government would consent to a remand in this matter.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Very truly yours,

Michael P. DiRaimondo

_____ X
In the Matter of

Michael KAMBUROWSKI,

A76 595 582,

Respondent,

DECLARATION OF
MICHAEL P. DiRAIMONDO

In Removal Proceedings.

Michael P. DiRaimondo, hereby declares:

1. I am an attorney in good standing duly authorized to practice law in the State of New York. I represent Mr. Michael Kamburowski and am submitting this declaration in support of his motion to reopen the in absentia order dated May 31, 2001.
2. On or about May 31, 2002, I filed a Petition for Alien Relative, Form I-130, on behalf of Gina Kamburowski, for her husband, Michael Kamburowski. Also on that date, I filed an Application for Adjustment of Status, Form I-485, for Mr. Kamburowski. A copy of the filing of May 31, 2002, is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A."
3. As a result of this filing, Mr. and Mrs. Kamburowski were scheduled for an interview on January 22, 2004, at the office of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service in Garden City, New York. I appeared with them at this interview. During the interview Mr. Kamburowski was asked from Form I-485, part three, Question no. 9, whether he has "ever been deported from the U.S., or removed from the U.S. at government expense, excluded within the past year, or are you now in exclusion or deportation proceedings?" The Respondent answered "No" to this question, and also answered no to this question when interviewed by me in connection with the filing of the application.

4. It appears, however, that the Respondent was placed under removal proceedings sometime in January 3, 2001, unbeknownst to the Respondent. The Notice to Appear ("NTA") was mailed by regular mail to his old address, which was no longer valid, at 2001 N. Adams Street, Arlington, VA. I was shown this by Special Agent Kidd ("SA Kidd") from the Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, at the interview. The NTA was returned to the Immigration & Naturalization Service ("INS"). This was also told to me by SA Kidd and shown to me in the Respondent's administrative file. SA Kidd refused to give me copies of any documents from the Respondent's administrative file.
5. Additionally, the file showed that a Surrender Notice was mailed to the Respondent at 3202 Pershing Drive, Arlington, VA, and it was also returned.
6. The Respondent lived at 3202 N. Pershing Drive, Arlington, VA, between January 1995 and June 1995. Furthermore, the Respondent informed me that he lived at 2001 North Adams Street, Arlington, VA, between February 1997 and April 1998. This was the address that the NTA was mailed to by regular mail on or about January 3, 2001. The Respondent had not lived at this address since April 1998.
7. As mentioned, I was allowed to review the Respondent's Administrative file with SA Kidd at his adjustment interview on January 22, 2004, and not one document showed that the Respondent had been served with the Notice to Appear. Furthermore, the INS had the Respondent's correct addresses continuously during this period.

8. Respondent was married to Ms. Terri Lynn Sweat, a U.S. citizen, from February of 1997 to April of 1998. As a result of their marriage, a Petition for Alien Relative, Form I-130, and Application for Adjustment of Status was filed with the INS in Arlington, Virginia, on October 30, 1997. See, Declaration of Michael Kamburowski, ¶3, and Exhibit "1", annexed thereto, filed herewith.
9. Unfortunately, the Respondent and his first wife were divorced on April 8, 1998, and the Respondent moved to 1613 Harvard Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Thereafter, the Respondent notified INS of his new address by the filing of Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions of Residence on December 9, 1998. The INS, in fact, responded on two occasions to the Respondent at his new address. See, Declaration of Michael Kamburowski, ¶¶ 4 & 5, and Exhibit "2", annexed thereto. Thereafter, the Respondent received no further communication from INS.
10. As an Officer of the Court, and on the basis of my review of the Respondent's administrative file, and the dates and addresses told to me by SA Kidd, the Respondent was never served with the NTA and the Respondent has told me on more than one occasion that he was never under any immigration proceedings.
11. Additionally, the Respondent told me on January 22, 2004, that he never received the NTA or any other document informing him that he had was being placed under removal proceedings, or any document that he had to appear for a removal hearing, or any document that he had been removed in his absence.
12. The Respondent was arrested at his adjustment of status interview at 711 Stewart Avenue, Garden City, New York, on January 22, 2004, and is now being detained by the Service at Wackenhut Correctional Facility, in Jamaica, New York. As such, it is respectfully requested that this motion be expedited.

WHEREFORE, on the basis that the Respondent was never served with the NTA and failed to receive notice of the hearing date, the Court should reopen said proceedings and change venue to the Wackenhut Correctional Facility, Jamaica, New York, where the Respondent is presently detained by the Service.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

NOTICE TO PERSONS FILING FOR SPOUSES IF MARRIED LESS THAN TWO YEARS

Pursuant to section 216 of the Immigration and nationality Act, your alien spouse may be granted conditional permanent resident status in the United States as of the date he or she is admitted or adjusted to conditional status by an officer of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Both you and your conditional permanent resident spouse are required to file a petition, Form I-751, Joint Petition to Remove Conditional Basis of Alien's Permanent Resident Status, during the ninety day period immediately before the second anniversary of the date your alien spouse was granted conditional permanent residence.

Otherwise, the rights, privileges, responsibilities and duties which apply to all other permanent residents apply equally to a conditional permanent resident. A conditional permanent resident is not limited to the right to apply for naturalization, to file petitions in behalf of qualifying relatives, or to reside permanently in the United States as an immigrant in accordance with the immigration laws.

Failure to file Form I-751, Joint Petition to Remove the Conditional Basis of Alien's Permanent Resident Status, will result in termination of permanent residence status and initiation of deportation proceedings.

In the Matter of

Michael KAMBUROWSKI,

A76 595 582,

Respondent,

DECLARATION OF
MICHAEL KAMBUROWSKI

In Removal Proceedings.

----- X

Michael Kamburowski, hereby declares:

1. I am the Respondent in this action, and submit this declaration in support of my motion to reopen.
2. I am a citizen of Australia, who entered the United States on January 23, 1995, as a nonimmigrant visitor, with authorization to remain in the United States until June 22, 1995.
3. On February 8, 1997, I married Terri Lynn Sweat, a United States Citizen.

My wife then petitioned for me to adjust my status in the United States. These papers were filed with the Immigration and Naturalization Service ("INS") office in Arlington, Virginia, in October of 1997. At that time, we were living at 2001 North Adams Street in Arlington, Virginia. A copy of these papers are annexed hereto as Exhibit "1."
4. In 1998, my wife and I started having marital problems, we went to counseling, but unfortunately we divorced in April of 1998. At that time, I moved to my new address at 1613 Harvard Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.
5. In December of 1998, I filed a Form I-751, Petition to Remove the Conditions of Residence with the Immigration and Naturalization Service. I thought that I needed to file this form since I had been divorced. I gave the INS my new address and the INS then sent me two letters regarding my petition to my new address. A copy of these letters are annexed hereto as Exhibit "2." After that, I did not receive any further communication from the INS. Based upon their letter of July 28, 1999, I believed that my case had been terminated.

6. Thereafter, I met my present wife and we were married in Arlington, Virginia, in June of 2001, and then moved to New York. Once in New York, we hired my present counsel, Mr. DiRaimondo to file papers to adjust my status. Mr. DiRaimondo filed papers with the INS in New York on May 31, 2002.
7. During my meetings with Mr. DiRaimondo, and in the submission of my papers to the INS, I was truthful and honest. I never knew that I had been placed into removal proceedings, I never received a Notice to Appear from the INS, an Order of Deportation from an Immigration Judge, or a Notice of Surrender, or any document from the INS regarding removal proceedings. The last information I received from the INS was their letter dated July 28, 1999, terminating my case.
8. As you can imagine, I was shocked when I was told at my adjustment interview that I had an outstanding order of removal and was even more shocked when I was taken into immigration custody. I have never been in jail for any reason. I respectfully request that the proceedings

D. Sponsor's Annual Household Income

Enter total unadjusted income from your Federal income tax return for the most recent tax year below. If you last filed a joint income tax return but are using only your own income to qualify, list total earnings from your W-2 Forms, or, if necessary to reach the required income for your household size, include income from other sources listed on your tax return. If your individual income does not meet the income requirement for your household size, you may also list total income for anyone related to you by birth, marriage, or adoption currently living with you in your residence if they have lived in your residence for the previous 6 months, or any person shown as a dependent on your Federal income tax return for the most recent tax year, even if not living in the household. For their income to be considered, household members or dependents must be willing to make their income available for support of the sponsored immigrant(s) and to complete and sign Form I-864A, Contract Between Sponsor and Household Member. A sponsored immigrant/household member only need complete Form I-864A if his or her income will be used to determine your ability to support a spouse and/or children immigrating with him or her.

You must attach evidence, of current employment and copies of income tax returns filed the IRS for the most recent 3 tax years for yourself and all persons whose income is listed below. See "Required Evidence" in Instructions. Income from all 3 years will be considered in determining your ability to support the immigrant(s) you are sponsoring.

- ☐ I filed a single/separate tax return for the most recent tax year.
☐ I filed a joint return for the most recent tax year which includes only my own income.
☐ I filed a joint return for the most recent tax year which includes income for my spouse and myself.
☐ I am submitting documentation of my individual income (Forms W-2 and 1099).
☐ I am qualifying using my spouse's income; my spouse is submitting a Form I-864A.

E. Determination of Eligibility Based on Income

- ☒ I am subject to the 125 percent of poverty line requirement for sponsors.
☐ I am subject to the 100 percent of poverty line requirement for sponsors on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces sponsoring their spouse or child.
- Sponsor's total household size, from Part 4.C, line 5-2
- Minimum income requirement from the Poverty Guidelines chart for the year of 2001 is $ 13,562 for this household size. (year)

If you are currently employed and your household income for your household size is equal to or greater than the applicable poverty line requirement (from line E.3.), you do not need to list assets (Parts 4.F. and 5) or have a joint sponsor (Part 6) unless you are requested to do so by a Consular or Immigration Officer. You may skip to Part 7, Use of the Affidavit of Support to Overcome Public Charge Ground of Admissibility. Otherwise, you should continue with Part 4.F.

Notice of Change of Address.

Sponsors are required to provide written notice of any change of address within 30 days of the change in address until the sponsored immigrant(s) have become U.S. citizens, can be credited with 40 quarters of work, depart the United States permanently, or die. To comply with this requirement, the sponsor must complete INS Form I-865. Failure to give this notice may subject the sponsor to the civil penalty established under section 213A(d)(2) which ranges from $250 to $2,000, unless the failure to report occurred with the knowledge that the sponsored immigrant(s) had received means-tested public benefits, in which case the penalty ranges from $2,000 to $5,000.

If my address changes for any reason before my obligations under this affidavit of support terminate, I will complete and file INS Form I-865, Sponsor's Notice of Change of Address, within 30 days of the change of address. I understand that failure to give this notice may subject me to civil penalties.

Means-tested Public Benefit Prohibitions and Exceptions.

Under section 403(a) of Public Law 104-193 (Welfare Reform Act), aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States, with certain exceptions, are ineligible for most Federally-funded means-tested public benefits during their first 5 years in the United States. This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act or to State public benefits, including emergency Medicaid; short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; student assistance under the Higher Education Act and the Public Health Service Act; certain forms of foster-care or adoption assistance under the Social Security Act; Head Start programs; means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act; and Job Training Partnership Act programs.

Consideration of Sponsor's Income in Determining Eligibility for Benefits.

If a permanent resident alien is no longer statutorily barred from a Federally-funded means-tested public benefit program and applies for such a benefit, the income and resources of the sponsor and the sponsor's spouse will be considered (or deemed) to be the income and resources of the sponsored immigrant in determining the immigrant's eligibility for Federal means-tested public benefits. Any State or local government may also choose to consider (or deem) the income and resources of the sponsor and the sponsor's spouse to be the income and resources of the immigrant for the purposes of determining eligibility for their means-tested public benefits. The attribution of the income and resources of the sponsor and the sponsor's spouse to the immigrant will continue until the immigrant becomes a U.S. citizen or has worked or can be credited with 40 qualifying quarters of work, provided that that the immigrant or the worker crediting the quarters to the immigrant has not received any Federal means-tested public benefit during any creditable quarter for any period after December 31, 1996.

I understand that, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), as amended, this affidavit of support constitutes a contract between me and the U.S. Government. This contract is designed to protect the United States Government, and State and local government agencies or private entities that provide means-tested public benefits, from having to pay benefits to or on behalf of the sponsored immigrant(s), for as long as I am obligated to support them under this affidavit of support. I understand that the sponsored immigrants, or any Federal, State, local, or private entity that pays any means-tested benefit to or on behalf of the sponsored immigrant(s), are entitled to sue me if I fail to meet my obligations under this affidavit of support, as defined by section 213A and INS regulations.

Civil Action to Enforce.

If the immigrant on whose behalf this affidavit of support is executed receives any Federal, State, or local means-tested public benefit before this obligation terminates, the Federal, State, or local agency or private entity may request reimbursement from the sponsor who signed this affidavit. If the sponsor fails to honor the request for reimbursement, the agency may sue the sponsor in any U.S. District Court or any State court with jurisdiction of civil actions for breach of contract. INS will provide names, addresses, and Social Security account numbers of sponsors to benefit-providing agencies for this purpose. Sponsors may also be liable for paying the costs of collection, including legal fees.
